Taken up WRIT PETITION NO : 19891 of 2005

Dated: 26th September 2005.

Between:

Maimcona Begum ..... Petitioner

AND

The Station House Officer,

Chandanagar Police Station, Cyberabad

and Another ..... Respondents

ORDER : (per MVR,J)

This Taken up Writ Petition flows from a telegram dated 2.9.2005 issued by the wife of the alleged detenue, alleging that her husband Syed Jaweed was wrongfully confined in Chandanagar Police Station since two days prior to 2nd September, 2005.

Learned Advocate General took notice of the matter and a counter has been filed by the 1st respondent stating that the son of the alleged detenue (accused) was involved in a case in Cr.No.248 of 2005 under Sections 457 and 380 IPC registered on 2.8.2005 at P.S.Chandanagar; that in that connection, the police visited the house of the alleged detenu on 26.8.2005, that the accuse was not available at the house and on enquiry the alleged detenu informed that the whereabouts of his son is not known to him and he will be produced as and when he returned home. However, on 2.9.2005 again the alleged detenue went to the police station and informed that the whereabouts of his son was not known. It is further stated in the counter affidavit that the alleged detenu was never taken into custody nor detained in the Police Station and he was moving out freely.

On 22.9.2005 we directed the concerned to produce the alleged detenu before us.

Today, accordingly, he was produced before us. We examined him in the chambers at 2.15 PM. Then he categorically stated that he was never detained by the police and as he was away from home for two days prior to the date of issuance of the telegram, his wife suspected that he might have been detained by the police and issued the telegram. In the aforesaid circumstances, we feel that no further steps are necessary in this regard and accordingly the writ petition is closed.
